

Acceptable Items

- Vegetables
- Fruits
- Herbs and spices
- Bread
- Pasta
- Rice
- Nuts and shells
- Eggshells
- Plant-based meat

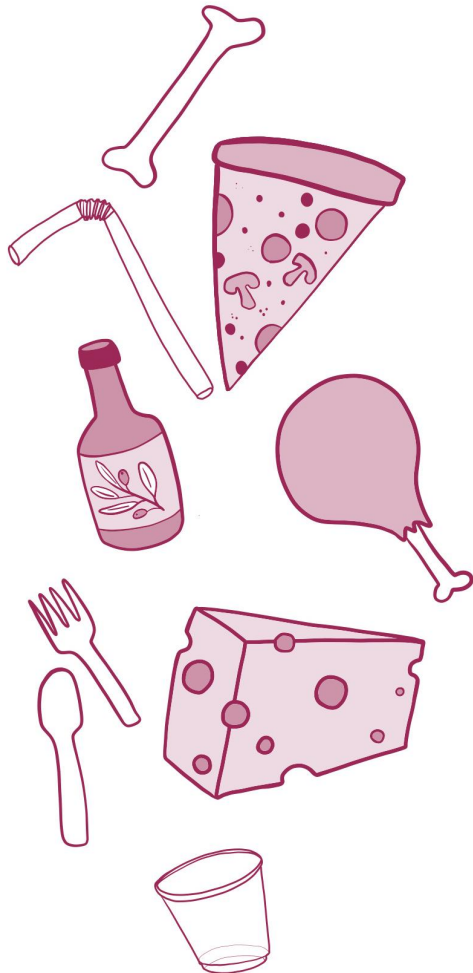

- Coffee + coffee filters
- Loose-leaf tea (no tea bags)

- Cut flowers
- Houseplants and houseplant soil

- Paper towels + paper napkins used with food items
- Paper bags
- Shredded, non-glossy paper
- Cardboard that has been cut up, with all staples, tape, labels, and plastic removed

- Wooden coffee stirs and skewers (broken into ~1" pieces)
- Biobag branded compostable liners

Non-Accepted Items

- Dairy
- Meat + fish
- Oils and greases

- Produce stickers (they are plastic)
- Produce twist ties + rubber bands
- Tea bags (most are plastic)
- Garbage + plastic
- "Compostable" or "biodegradable" single-use items (including utensils, bowls, plates, cups, coffee cups, compostable liners other than Biobag)

- Parchment paper and wax paper
- Glossy paper and glossy cardboard
- Large sheets of cardboard
- Paper towels + paper napkins used with cleaning products
- Cleaning products

- Clothing
- Dryer lint

- Pet waste
- Yard waste

If you have any questions about specific items, contact us at 513.202.3260 or lets.talk@queencitycommons.com

Because we work with farms and gardens who use the compost to grow food, when in doubt, throw it out!